Administrative history / Biographical sketch

The Mister Ladies Bowls Club was established in 1971. The club was named after The Minster Inn on Marygate, York, where the club members used to meet. The club originally used Exhibition Green to bowl, which was located behind the York Art Gallery, before moving to Clarence Gardens, where they paid to use the facilities. The club was closed in 2017.

Scope and content

Administrative records of the sports club, comprising minutes and meeting papers, financial accounts and papers, and club rules.

Notes

Arrangement

Items have been arranged into two series of records: minutes and financial papers. One minute volume or folder is missing from the collection at the time of deposit (1989-1992).
